ERRATIC ROOM | LYLA RYE

NOVEMBER 19 – DECEMBER 19, 2013 | OPENING TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 2013 FROM 5 – 10 PM

TPOLOGY PROJECTS is pleased to present our inaugural exhibition. Featuring an immersive video installation and new limited edition photo series, ERRATIC ROOM | LYLA RYE will open in conjunction with Artscape Youngplace's grand opening on November 19, 2013. An exhibition catalogue with original curatorial essay and a small limited-print edition will accompany the show. Future exhibition-related events include a catalogue launch, film screening, curator's and artist's talks, and a family-friendly holiday workshop.

ABOUT THE ARTIST

Lyla Rye is Toronto-based artist who began her studies in architecture. She studied at University of Waterloo, York University (BFA 1989), and the San Francisco Art Institute (MFA 1994) and currently works in installation, video, and photography with an interest in our experience of architectural space. She is a sessional faculty member in the Art and Art History joint program between Sheridan College and University of Toronto Mississauga and the founder of Mentor Lyla Rye.

ABOUT THE INSTALLATION

One wants a room with no view, so imagination and memory can meet in the dark.

— Annie Dillard

Featuring immersive projections of altered architectural and urban apertures, enclosures, edges and experiences, ERRATIC ROOM constitutes an off-kilter vision of the world just beyond our walls. Out-of-sync sounds, unmoored from the images and actions they originally corresponded to, reverberate with an echo or foreshadowing of past and future uncertain events. Simultaneously delimiting and expanding the boundaries of the space it occupies, ERRATIC ROOM begets a similarly confounding effect upon our imaginations and memories. From our cloistered vantage point within the darkened room, the enveloping projections assume the form and function of apparitional windows on an unsettled world.

ABOUT TYPOLOGY

TPOLOGY is a new not-for-profit project space devoted to artistic and curatorial research and experimentation in the production of exhibitions, editions, and related events. Please contact Shani K Parsons at info@typology.ca or visit www.typology.ca for more information.
