ELEMENTAL | BOOK WORKS BY CATHRYN MILLER

NOVEMBER 7 – DECEMBER 14, 2014 | OPENING FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 7TH, 2014 FROM 7 – 9 PM

TYPOLOGY presents the solo exhibition, Elemental, featuring a selection of unique and editioned book works by Saskatchewan artist Cathryn Miller. Ranging from tiny folded paper works to a new wall-sized composition, the thoughtfully conceived and often laboriously crafted objects in the show represent a sustained investigation of manifold worlds, encompassing both the inner/outer, micro/macro, and meta/physical dimensions. In distilling her findings into the personal, poetic, and often playful objects on view, Miller's observations and life experiences are made exquisitely manifest in the tactile materials, sequential structures, and storied logic of both traditional and invented or altered book forms.

An exhibition catalogue with original curatorial essay and a limited edition print produced in collaboration with the artist will accompany the show.

PROJECTS

ABOUT THE ARTIST

A former theatrical designer and fibre artist, Cathryn Miller has focused on book arts and paper making for the past twenty years. Throughout her career she has won numerous awards and is the only Saskatchewan craftsperson to have received the Premier's Prize at Dimensions (the annual juried exhibition of the Saskatchewan Craft Council), in two different media.

Under the imprint of Byopia Press, Miller's handmade paper and book works are held in more than forty public collections in Canada, the United States, and England, and in private collections the world over. A homecoming of sorts, Elemental is Miller's first solo show in Toronto, where she was born and lived as a child before moving around the country, eventually settling in Saskatchewan in 1973.
